THE FREEDOM OF SARABIA

No Charge of Any Character Against Him

A Letter In Which He Tells the Story of the Kidnaping.

Douglas, Ariz., July 12.—The Mexican who was kidnaped from the Douglas jail on the night of June 30, for which Mexican Consul Maza and three officers have been held for trial by the grand jury of the territory, is tonight a free man without a charge against him.

He arrived at Naco, the border town, near here tonight, accompanied by Captain Harry Wheeler. Sarabia has expressed himself as being profoundly pleased and impressed with the manner in which the people of this section came to his assistance. Governor Torres, at Hermosillo, to Captain Wheeler expressed the greatest regret at the manner in which Sarabia had been treated by the officers in his district.

Hundreds of Americans and Mexicans gathered at the station tonight, expecting the return of Sarabia, but were disappointed when they learned that he stopped off with Captain Wheeler at Naco. He will be here tomorrow.

The International American today received a remarkable letter from Sarabia dated July 3, while Sarabia was in the penitentiary at Hermosillo. The letter is as follows:

"Penitentiary, Hermosillo, July 3.—To the Editor of the International American: Dear Sir: 'I do this letter with a little pencil, and write on my knees, so it is hard to do a good one. I am Manuel Sarabia, the man who worked in your office as Sam Moret, and who was kidnaped by the Mexican consul and some American officers. On the 20th of June I was walking toward the depot to drop a letter in the train going to El Paso. The Ranger turned on me, said: 'Hands up.' 'Certainly I was surprised, but did not care for the revolver he put on my breast. 'Hands up' said he again. 'You arrested.' 'I answered: 'Show me the warrant.' 'I don't need a warrant for you,' said the Ranger. 'Well then, I don't go with you,' I said. 'But he asked for help to a man who was near us both and took me to the city hall. 'I was placed in a cell, guards heavily armed, watching me. Near 11 o'clock at night the two officers went over to my cell and one said to me: 'Put on your clothes.' 'After they put heavy rings on my hands, they said: 'Come on.' 'I immediately guessed all and more when I saw an automobile at the front. I started to cry out 'Long live liberty! Don't take me down to Mexico. I am a political offender. Manuel Sarabia is an honest man.' 'They put me in an automobile and sailed away, a handkerchief in my mouth, another over my eyes. They choked me into quiet. Oh it was a crime. I never thought that American officers would do that kind of work. 'Talk in your papers something about my case in the name of civilization. The American government must ask for my return and give me an open trial. My case is a clear one. I am a victim of the law. Four years ago I went to the United States as did I know it was a country of liberty. So I ask for justice; ask for my return to American soil. 'After the American officers delivered me to the rurales that were waiting for me, they put me on a horse as a sack of potatoes, and we were riding all night. In the morning arrived at Naco. I was badly injured. Twelve or fifteen officers took me to Cananea and put me in a cell. The Fourth of July the rurales took me on a horse and with rings on my hands to Muzma, Sonora. After riding eight hours we arrived at the town. I was in a very bad condition. The fifth, they took me to Hermosillo where I am now. 'The Mexican law says that any incommunicado prisoner who is not asked any questions between 72 hours must be put free. I have nine days, they don't ask me anything yet, and am incommunicado waiting. You will do something for me. 'I am sincerely your friend and servant. (Signed) 'MANUEL SARABIA.' FRISCO TOLL RATE.

It Shall No Longer Be Charged on Coast Line Route.

Washington, July 12.—A case of particular importance to the Pacific coast generally was decided today by the Interstate commerce commission, the opinion being rendered by Commissioner Lane. It is what is known as the San Francisco toll case, which involves the right of the Southern Pacific to charge as a part of its rate to San Francisco, a state toll of five cents per ton. It appears that the Southern Pacific reaches San Francisco by two lines, the Ogden route, the traffic by which is ferried from Oakland to San Francisco, and the Coast line, which enters the city by an all rail route. The decision orders that the Southern Pacific shall strike from its tariffs applicable to the Coast Line business the paragraph entitled "Toll at San Francisco," and that it shall cease and desist from making any charge for toll at San Francisco, when such toll charges are actually paid by the carrier.

PEACE WAS SIGNED AT SAGAMORE HILL

An Official Statement Declaring the Fundamental Friendliness of This Country and Japan.

Oyster Bay, July 12.—An official statement announcing a thoroughly good understanding and fundamental friendliness between the United States and Japan was issued by President Roosevelt today through Secretary Loeb, after the departure of Admiral Yamamoto and Ambassador Aoki from Sagamore Hill. The statement follows: "The president had a long interview with Admiral Yamamoto and it was satisfactory in every way. It simply confirms all that had already been made clear to Aoki, of the thoroughly good understanding between the two governments and the fundamental friendliness between the two nations."

THE STOCK MARKET FINDS SOLID BOTTOM

The Readjustment of Levels Continued Until a Firmness Was Established.

New York, July 12.—The market for securities became torpid today, the activity dwindling until at times late in the day trading was idle. Fluctuations were correspondingly narrow, but the undertone was firm. The Union Pacific and Atchafalpa bond issues were subjects of continued discussion. One of the subjects of comment was the expected publication on Sunday of the findings of the interstate commerce commission on the Harriman investigation. The Harriman stocks were firmly held during the day. The stagnation of the market itself was the feature of the latter part of the day, but the gains held to a firm closing.

METALS.

New York, July 12.—Spot tin was 5c lower at $18 1/2 in London. Futures advanced 1/2 to $18 1/2. Locally the market was easy, spot $18 1/2. Copper was lower in London, spot $25 1/2 and futures $26 1/2. Locally the market was dull and nominal with lake at $21 1/2, electrolytic $21 5/8 and 21 3/4, and casting $21 1/2. Lead was unchanged at $24 5/8 in London and at $6.15 in the local market. Iron was unchanged in the English market. Locally the market was weak and unchanged.

GRAIN.

Chicago, July 12.—Active covering by shorts caused a strong wheat market today. September showing a gain of 1/2c. Corn was up 1/4c, and oats 1/2c. Higher. September wheat opened 1/2c lower to 1/2c higher at 93 1/2c, and closed at 94c. Corn market was weak. September opened 1/2c to 1/2c lower at 53 1/2c, sold off to 53 1/2c, rallied to 54 1/2c and closed at 54 1/2c. Oats were weak. September opened 1/2c higher at 38 1/2c, advanced to 39c and closed at 39c.

ITALIAN MURDERER

Accidentally Discovered by the Brother of His Victim.

Portland, Ore., July 12.—Nic Clarno, the alleged murderer of Nuss Biagetti, a young Italian girl at Manama, Italy, on January 16, of this year, was arrested in this city today at the instance of Giuseppe Biagetti, a brother of the dead girl, who
